

Teachers Threaten To Reject Contract

An eleventh hour rejection of sections of a purportedly negotiated contract between members of the Placentia Unified Education Association (PUEA-teachers) and the Placentia Unified School District Board of Trustees brought angry responses Monday night from school board members.

The bad news concerning the contract, which PUSD trustees apparently considered completed finalized, was presented by PUEA president Kerry Johnson.

Reading from a prepared statement and in impromptu remarks, Johnson indicated to trustees that his executive board and representative council wished to confirm the fringe benefits section of the 43 page contract but was recommending to its membership that the entire package including a 5.2 wage increase, be rejected.

Trustee John Balducci asked sternly: "Do you expect the board to go ahead and take those actions in spite of the fact that you have recommended that your people do not approve the contract in total? I'm having a hard time understanding how you can recommend a part of the package and then recommend that the total package be turned down!" Johnson answered that his executive group felt that the "fringe benefits need to be resolved soon because it's our understanding that in order to have it effective so that people can have insurance coverages, it has to be done now."

Included in the contract trustees stated they believed to be final, besides the across-the-board salary increase of 5.2 per cent which raises minimums and maximums of $9,214 and $20,307 to $9,693 and $21,363, are provisions for an increase in district-paid life insurance from $10,000 to $20,000 for each employee and a district payment of a 14 per cent increase in Blue Cross health insurance.

For the first time the contract puts working hours in writing (introduced at request of PUEA first demands), setting an average 7.5 hours including "scheduled preparation, student contact and performance of equitably-assigned adjunct duties and excluding lunch."

Also included is extra duty pay for teachers performing such services as coaching, teaching extracurricular music and drama groups and sponsoring student publications. Such stipends have been increased up to 90 per cent of the Orange County average, it was reported.

Agreements on class sizes establish maximums for each grade level and subject area "which allows us to keep existing programs," explained Eugene Dorn, the district's chief negotiator. The district will work toward lowering class sizes, he added.

The contract also calls for advisory arbitration in grievance procedure. If grievances progress beyond arbitration, final decisions will be made by the elected members of the district board of education.

Other provisions of the contract give teachers the option of joining or not joining PUEA and the right to see their personnel files and challenge materials in them. It also improves communication between managers and teachers being transferred.

Other items negotiated which remain basically the same as the past year, include leaves and absences, evaluations of teachers and safety.

Many other items, including curriculum planning, included in the initial proposal presented by PUEA are not in the final document but are covered through district policies and

Half Hour Bus Service On Route 69

The Orange County Transit District bus will run a little oftener in Placentia.

Starting Monday, the OCTD has announced that Route 69 which serves Yorba Linda, Fullerton, Placentia, Anaheim, Orange and Santa Ana will provide half hour service Monday through Saturday.

The intent of the increase the bus district says, is to improve access to the Orange County Civic Center, Chapman College, Mall of Orange, Cal State University at Fullerton and Placentia-Linda Community Hospital.

Three additional vehicles will be put on the route.

"Increased ridership on the route also has prompted the district to add another bus to the line while maintaining the existing schedule Monday through Saturday," the district explained.

The number of buses on the entire countywide system is being increased by 40 per cent in the new revamping program.

Placentia Purchases More Vehicles

Invitations to bid sent to ten automobile dealers for the purchase by the city of Placentia of a sedan, two trucks and three utility vehicles, were returned by only two firms, James Park, City Purchasing Agent notified the city council Tuesday night.

Bids for three of the vehicles went to Fairway Ford in Placentia and for three utility vehicles to Cushman Motor Sales, Santa Fe Springs. No

Council OKs Drug Funding

A sum of $227, to enable the city of Placentia to participate for the fourth year in the Orange County Narcotic Index, was approved Tuesday night by the city council.

The funds will allow the city to continue in the county-wide law enforcement agencies' efforts to curtail the traffic in drugs.

The monies are used for surveillance vehicles and equipment and for purchase of narcotics during undercover operations, informant fees and expenses, the report outlined.

"The Placentia Police Department has used over $10,000 of these funds in nine operations during the DUNKED--the city and surrounding areas were drenched with an unusual September wet-washing this past week as an estimated 1 1/2 inches of rain fell on Placentia. Streets, however, for the most part remained passable thanks to an ongoing storm drain building program which has cleared up previous rain water problem areas. Thought to be the sidewalk of Hurricane Kathleen, the rains cooled off soaring temperatures and left everything, including the air, several shades brighter. However, Daisy Aubert of Placentia was taking no chances and appears here ready for any more sudden outbursts.

Inner Police Struggle Bared In Testimony

Possible polarization of the Placentia Police Department into two camps, surrounding the disciplinary action taken against veteran police sergeant Eugene Cason, was hinted at Thursday night in continuing testimony before the city's Personnel Appeals Board.

The third session is scheduled to resume Wednesday night at 7 p.m., in the City Council Chambers with possible additional chapters on Thursday and Friday nights.

Cason, who has been with the Placentia Police Department for 17 years, 13 years of that as a sergeant, has appealed recent disciplinary action of the Chief of Police Norman Traub, demoting him to a patrolman.

Placed on the stand Thursday night was Sgt. Arthur Hartzell, ironically Sgt. Cason's replacement at the present time on Cason's former watch commander night duty.

Sgt. Hartzell, in a mode unallowable in court, but apparently following personnel hearing rules, was permitted not only to express his personal opinion as to Sgt. Cason's competency, but to report second hand attitudes of persons of his acquaintance. The testimony was permitted to continue for some time without interruption either from Personnel Appeals Board Chairman Art Winney or Cason's attorney Hugh Swanson.

A previous effort by Police Chief Traub to substitute himself for the interrogating Placentia City Attorney Charles Post III, however, met with immediate and strong objec-

Cost of Paramedics Subject For Debate

The cost of training Orange County Paramedics, including those in service in Placentia, is being borne by the taxpayer, Edwin Powell, Placentia City Administrator pointed out to city councilmen Tuesday night.

"Most paramedics are firemen and this is where the cost comes in," Powell explained.

"Outside this county this is not true. There they have individuals who would like to become paramedics, who take courses on their own...and then they have a marketable product to enter this particular field.

"The cost that the Orange County cities are suffering, however," Powell continued, "is the fact that you first have qualified, well trained firemen who had to be relieved from their duties to take this expensive course for six months." "While they're gone you have to hire someone to do their work. We don't hire a girl first and then send her someplace to learn how to type," Powell outlined.

In a recent report from Orange County Human Services Agency it is estimated that training one paramedic costs taxpayers $3,904 and that the total bill for Orange

Maintenance Services Put On Contract

A bid for $2,345 a month for the maintenance of Placentia's public buildings, was unanimously approved Tuesday night by the city council.

The bid, the second lowest, went to Fox Building Maintenance of Fullerton. The lowest bid, staff reported, was rejected due to the circumstances surrounding their performance with other clients during the past year.

Included in the accepted bid is maintenance for City Hall; the Police Facility; Recreation and Maintenance Services Office at 117 North Main Street; the Backs Community Building; L. Jack Gomez Community Building (Atwood) and the Chester L. Whitten Building (La Jolla); Senior Citizens Building; Youth Activity House at the west end of Kraemer Park; John O. Tynes Gymnasium in Tuffree Park; George J. Koch Community Building; Vaqueros Recreation Center and the Social Services Office, 120 South Bradford.

Driveway Parking May Be Curtailed

A vehicle ordinance, which would make it illegal for a Placentia homeowner to park his own automobile in his own driveway for more than 72 hours at a time, unless the vehicle was moved, was unexpectedly introduced at a "study session" of the Placentia Planning Commission Thursday night.

Study sessions, previously guided by the city's planning department as not touching on public agenda items, are usually not attended by the public or the press.

Library Revenues $20,926 Short

The effect of three unknown factors, presented at the meeting of the Placentia Library board Wednesday night revealed that the tax recently set by trustees would leave the facility $20,926 short on their 1976-77 budget.

David Snow, Director of the library explained that the more than $20,000 shortage was caused by information not previously available. Information from Orange County affecting the amount of revenues the board will receive concerned the delinquency factor, the disputed value of oil and the Anaheim Redevelopment Agency.

A higher rate of delinquency on tax payments to the county, Snow explained, is expected to cut revenues and the oil argument is in litigation with those funds impounded. The library district enters into only a small area of the Anaheim

Bradford Committee Readies Report

An impressive report on the Bradford House, the home of the founder of the city of Placentia, is expected to be forwarded to the city council on Tuesday, September 21.

The many page document is the two-months all-out effort of a special Blue Ribbon Committee appointed by Mayor George De Jesus.

The report is expected to carry specific recommendations including "It is highly suitable that a House that provided a cultural environment for a pioneer's family should continue to provide it for the city which he helped to found."

In a preview of the proposal it is indicated that the committee will recommend that the house not be demolished and not be sold. Also that the city apply for a designation for the entire Bradford Park, including the house, as an "Historical Point of Interest."

Also highlighted in the report is expected to be interim uses for the house including space for the Placentia Chamber of Commerce. Other uses in the holding pattern discussed at meetings, include adult education classes, children's cultural classes and a meeting room available for rent to nonprofit groups.

Other anticipated recommendations include that the house be brought back to the livable condition in which it was first donated to the city. Also of concern to the committee is a cultural arts needs assessment which the committee is expected to recommend along with a cultural arts commission and cultural arts commissioner.

"There will in the future, be an appropriate time to apply for federal and privately funded grants to further the cultural uses of the Bradford House for the community," the committee's first draft of its program reads.

The committee's research also shows that it will cost less to develop the park surrounding the house with the house intact, rather than without it. The home is located among impressive trees on Palm Drive between Kraemer Boulevard and

A barrage of stones completely demolished a front window as four occupants rode inside. Juveniles were reportedly responsible. The driver of the car Frank Dazey talks to Police Officer Tom Correll. Mrs. Gunnel Dazey and two children Peter and Isabel also inside the automobile were uninjured. A witness reported he saw three young boys throw the stones from behind a brick wall.

There's no question that national politics is going to heat up...and it may have begun right here in Placentia!

That was a week ago, on Wednesday and the ladies of the Placentia-Yorba Linda Federated Republican Women decided to open their headquarters.

It was in the 90's outside. And inside at their special place in the Pantry Market Shopping Center, 1866 North Placentia Avenue, it was even hotter.

Undaunted more than 50 well groomed ladies sat in sweltering silence. Also enduring the heat of the efforts of politics was a United States Congressman, Charles Wiggins, looking dapper in a beige suit and refusing to wilt; one state assemblyman, Bruce Nestande; a representative of another, Ron Fox from Assemblyman John Briggs office; a celebrity from the Republican Orange County Central Committee, Bob Harvey and two Placentia City Councilmen (Donald Holt and Mayor Pro Tem William Rashford), and Placentia Unified School District Trustee Jean Pappas.

The day was planned as a ribbon-cutting bright, festive occasion...only no one expected it to be so dark when the guests gathered inside. No lights.

The congressman, whose wife Betty is from Placentia spoke briefly with an occasional remark that he would hurry so that everybody could get back outdoors and cool off in the 90 degree heat. There was even reference to a sauna!

But no one seemed to mind the inconvenience at all until word got back to City Hall in Placentia.

Chief Building Official Victor Newton had a sharp tone of dismay in his voice as he learned that local Republican Headquarters had been forced to ribbon-cut without benefit of utilities...no water...no electricity...no lights...no air conditioning...no telephones.

"No, don't tell me," Newton, who has been besieged by irate homeowners over the city's required $15 inspection fee before their houses can be sold, implored.

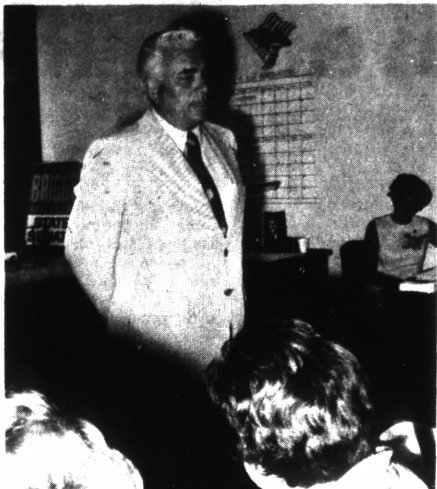

Sure enough. The headquarters hadn't passed building inspection.

SWELTERING in plus 90 degree humid heat, guests at the opening of the local Republican Headquarters smile through the experience. Assemblyman Bruce Nestande is seated on the aisle. Standing in back, Orange County Central Committee Chairman Bob Harvey; Peggy Barnes; Charlotte Tiedt; Councilman Donald Holt; John Briggs Assistant, Ron Fox; Placentia Mayor Pro Tem William Rashford and Placentia Unified School District Trustee Jean Pappas.

HOT BUT NOT BOTHERED Congressman Charles Wiggins talks to a roomful of Republican women from a Placentia and Yorba Linda. Marianne Hodgkins is seated at the desk.

KEEPING THEIR COOL, Congressman Wiggins prepares for the ribbon cutting ceremony outdoors, where temperatures are only 90 or so. With him is Placentia Councilman Donald Holt, Congressman Wiggins; Assemblyman Bruce Nestande; Committee Chairman Bob Harvey and Mayor Pro Tem William Rashford. Refreshments included hot coffee and pastries.

ies will be nightly services, restroom service, window service and periodic services. With five companies bidding, the high entry was $3,748 for the monthly schedule.

The city has reportedly contracted out maintenance services to save money. Outside service can be supplied at a lower cost than City Hall can produce with the current level of city wages and the wide range of benefits, it was estimated.

Bradford Avenue. The park and home were given to the city by Albert Sumner Bradford's heirs.

Also pointed out by the committee in the first draft of its report is: "It is suggested that Placentia having almost reached its building capacity, having excellent fire and police departments and the educational system, a good program for physical recreations, is now maturing to the state of a complete city. It is growing from a bedroom town to a city around which people can center their lives. It is at the stage when residents' cultural needs should be considered.

"In comparing Placentia with 16 other nearby communities through data gathered by the Orange County Art Alliance, our city has fewer cultural activities than any of the others," it was pointed out.

Heading the Blue Ribbon Committee is Mrs. Teri Jones, whose husband Dr. Claris Jones is director of California State University at Fullerton's Arboretum in which a Heritage House is used as an office.

Cason Hearing Testimony

tions. Swanson pointed out strongly that "Chief Traub, if he takes over, sets a precedent for anybody else who happens to have something on their mind to come up here and question... (interrupted by applause from the audience.)

"Chief Traub is an adversary in this proceeding. We have two attorneys," Swanson continued. "Chief Traub in cross examining Sgt. Cason, could cross examine all of the police officers sitting here and it's almost like me cross examining my son and convincing him that black is white because I'm his superior."

"And I don't think you are going to elicit the truth from anybody in cross examination. It's not going to happen with Chief Traub doing it." Post responded: "I think it is well within our discretion as to how we conduct the case. We're not trying to take unique advantage."

Chairman Winney called a five minute recess before ruling that Post would conduct the city's questioning, based on appeals board rules.

The more than five hours of testimony heard Thursday night was produced to be germane to charges made by the police department against its veteran officer.

Cason was demoted by Traub over allegations that Cason had failed to report to this supervisor that a subordinate falsified a citation; failure to take action to stop the wrongful prosecution of a citizen and incompetency as a sergeant.

All of the charges have resulted from the interaction of and subsequent events involving two rookie policemen, Officer John Diamond, since terminated and Officer Steven Van Etten. Van Etten was on the witness stand at the first session. Diamond, however, not at the hearing has been charged with two counts of felonies.

Troubles for both Diamond and Cason result from three incidents, according to previous testimony. Officer Diamond reported skid marks at the scene of a traffic accident. Officer Van Etten said they did not exist. No charges have been filed on this incident, however, although it has been referred to several times.

The second episode also involving Diamond and Van Etten, according to testimony of Van Etten, pertained to the two officers in their police cars at the intersection of Tuffree Boulevard and Bastanchury Road. Diamond was reportedly watching the intersection for possible traffic rule violators. Van Etten, who had stopped to chat, spotted one, but Diamond issued the citation. This citation has since been revoked.

The third event, according to Van Etten, involved the falsification on one of Diamond's reports that people out pushing a car and with a loaded gun in the vehicle were in truth back inside their car.

This behavior on the part of Diamond so upset Van Etten, he testified, that he was unable to sleep that night.

When Van Etten, who was under watch commander Cason, reported the incidents to Cason's superior, Lt. Walt Pichon, after first reporting it to Cason, the wheels were set in motion leading to Diamond's dismissal and Cason's hearing and demotion.

The speed with which the action

Republicans Keep Their Cool

"The inspector went out and couldn't get the metal plate off the utilities box," Newton explained. "So he had to go back the next day." That day they tried it off and found nothing wrong inside. Inspection passed.

By then it was too late to notify the utility companies that their services were finally welcome.

One of the ladies, who lives in the other city, remarked that they didn't have anything like that where she lives, but everyone was too hot to pay any attention.

Without water, coffee had to be made at homes and brought in in the ornate silver service. No one drank a lot anyway until they got back outside where it was 90 and they could cool off a little.

Reports were this week that weather conditions at the headquarters have definitely improved and that the center, lit and air conditioned will be used as one of three telephone banks for the Republicans in Orange County. That means man and woman power for ten phones.

"I didn't mind it at all," one visiting dignitary remarked pointedly at the end of the festive occasion. "Why it was hot enough in there to roast peanuts!"

Paramedics Cost

County this fiscal year will be $299,266. Salaries of these trainees are paid on top of that.

Powell, continuing his review before the city council reported that "We have spoken with many, many individuals who have said they would like to be paramedics. And we had to tell them, first you have to be a fireman. And they say: 'I don't want to be a fireman, I just want to be a paramedic!'"

Mayor George DeJesus commented: "I never, for years, have understood why a fireman was uniquely qualified to be a paramedic. I do not like the idea that they are the only ones who can be paramedics. Further, I see no necessity in the taxpayer contributing to their education."

Opinions of city councilmen will be forwarded to the League of Cities, Orange County Division, where the paramedics issue and its financing is currently under discussion.

conference with Privette on Monday, July 19, the testimony revealed.

Under questioning by Post, Lt. Robertson responded: "The reason I didn't (talk to Cason), was because it could have gone either one of two ways. There could have been a violation on his part or a violation of personnel rules of non criminal nature."

"He would have had to be advised of his constitutional rights if he were suspected and charged with a felony. If it were a personnel matter then that wouldn't be necessary. I didn't want to jeopardize either case until I had an indication from the district attorney as the best way to handle it."

Under questioning by Swanson, Sgt. Cason had listed his activities at the police station on the days involved including a possible rumble in South Placentia. Cason testified also that in the case of the citations, he had pulled each case on information from Officer Van Etten, had documented them and placed them in a special drawer designated for his use. This would follow proper procedure, he indicated.

Lengthy testimony was elicited from Sgt. Hartzell as to his personal opinions and evaluations of Sgt. Cason's abilities and performances. Strewn throughout the dialogue were references to other police personnel and their opinions concerning Cason. No attempt so far has been made to solicit first hand information on these allegations.

Also anticipated is that Swanson, acting for Cason will subpoena other police staff members for a two-way dialogue. The latter matters and testimony concern the third charge against Cason of incompetency.

Concerning the legality of a meeting, which the public was permitted to attend, Arnold Hamala, Director of Planning stated to the group: "The philosophy we are working under is if we all learn what this means and we all start with the same base, it will be much more effective. Our discussions, our deliberations when we get to the public hearings, will be much more effective, much more productive."

Hamala said that the planning commission study sessions are held on Thursdays, "but no particular Thursday" and about once a month.

City Attorney, Charles Post III was unavailable for comment on the legality of discussing an agenda item requiring a public hearing, in a "study session" which had not been legally posted.

your fast action, the injured parties would have suffered more than they did.

You are doing a service to this community that can never truly be compensated for in words, but Thank You from our hearts.

PUEA Recommends Rejection

procedures and the Education Code, Dorn added.

Approximately 700 teachers would be covered by the contract which was negotiated up to this point, with more than 150 hours of at-table bargaining over the summer months.

At the Monday night meeting, Balducci, adding to his first comments said he was speaking from the emotional side of John Balducci, "who sat here and publicly heard this board denounced for taking unilateral actions during the negotiations process and sat here until 3 o'clock in the morning a week ago Thursday with the executive board of PUEA here and the board of education here supporting our negotiators and ended with what we all thought was total agreement on the contract and it would therefore be recommended for ratification."

"Why didn't you people say something that night about disagreeing with these things and that you wanted to continue negotiations? I recognize that there are parts of the contract you don't like. There are parts I don't like. But we did sit here and hammer out an agreement. I don't understand people. I don't understand what the hell we were here for a week ago Thursday."

Johnson answered that PUEA negotiators "made clear to your negotiators that the document that was there was unacceptable to us. And if there was any confusion about that it must have been confusion on your side. I'm aware that they knew that was our recommendation."

Majorie Santos, one of the PUEA negotiators concurred. She stated that the agreement reached between PUEA negotiators and those for the trustees had many unexpected revisions made in it when it came back from trustees before the final Thursday night session.

Dr. William Yates stated: "The only reason I would have agreed to release this thing (the contract) to a print shop for some 900 copies was if it were indeed a negotiated document. There would be no other reason to do so."

Superintendent of Schools, John Tynes asked Johnson, "Am I hearing that you would like the board to withdraw that 5.2?" (wage increase).

"We made the offer and we are going to stick by it," Tynes added. "But I want you to know this much. If I had to make it today with the enrollment that came in today (lower than anticipated), it would be point two instead of 5.2."

On other negotiation fronts, talks are continuing between the district's 460 classified employees represented by California School Employees Association and the district.

Also, trustees in August granted a 5 per cent across the board salary increase to staff members who are not permitted to negotiate, including certificated management and classified supervisors and confidential employees. An additional 2 1/2 per cent goes to the latter two groups for "additional responsibilities."

Members of the PUEA have scheduled an election on September 22 to determine whether their membership will accept the contract under dispute Monday night or will reject it.

others responded and no motion was made to rebid the items.

The city will buy a two-door compact sedan for $3,736.50; a compact truck with Servis mini body for $3,835.20 and a compact truck with Servis mini body for $4,354.44, all from Fairway Ford.

Three three-wheel utility vehicles for use in Placentia parks will be purchased from Cushman Motors for a total of $9,984.52. Park reported.

The Ford Pinto at $3,736.50 will come equipped with an AM radio and a cigar lighter, for use by the city's building division. Ben Minamide, Director of Community Development and the City Engineer had requested automatic transmission and air conditioning.

A total of how many cars, trucks, and other vehicles the city of Placentia now owns, was not available at press time.

Redevelopment area and the section has no resident in it that pays taxes. The last factor may also involve an error by county, Snow said.

Snow recommended balancing the budget by taking $5,539 from the library's structures and improvements account; $5,387 from the general reserves and $10,000 from capital equipment.

Tax rate set by the library district to cover a $611,459 budget is 33 cents per $100 assessed valuation. The new rate was a drop of 1 1/3 cents.

This year's assessed valuation for the library district was reported at $127,681,971, an increase this year of 21 per cent. The budget also is $80,000 higher.

Motor Vehicle Parking

Also attending the session was Placentia Police Department Sgt. Bob Jones who apparently had been invited to give information as to the problems of vandalism and theft involving trailer homes and other accessories left on the public rights-of-way. On public streets the police department takes over the job of enforcement.

Sgt. Jones cited the present law which prohibits the onstreet parking of trailers, truck campers and motor homes except for up to a 24 hour period for loading or unloading.

An exception to the present law is that the chief of police may, upon written request, approve the parking of special circumstances constituting a hardship."

A denial of such request may be appealed to the city council.

One resident present at the session, informed Jones, reading the code, that he had "just answered my question. I called up the desk sergeant here the other day and asked him if I could take my camper off my truck and park it out in front of my house and he said yes for three days. You just answered my question when you said it is up to the discretion of the chief."

Sgt. Jones responded: "He really shouldn't have told you that. The ordinance does not say that. It says the chief. The watch commander or the sergeant is not the chief. And it says written too."

"But doesn't this go down through supervision?" the speaker queried. "The desk sergeant, he gets his communication from the chief doesn't he?"

A spokesman from the building department added "We enforce on a complaint basis. If we get a complaint we respond to that. We are not staffed for an ongoing enforcement program." People who do not cooperate with courtesy notices, it was pointed out, are turned over to the city attorney for prosecution.

In the first draft of the new ordinance, to be discussed at the September 23 meeting, all motor vehicles, including motor homes and campers mounted on a truck body may be parked in driveways but must be moved every 72 hours.

Motor vehicles, trailers and recreational apparatus may be parked or stored behind a front yard setback if the vehicle or apparatus is "screened from public view in a manner approved by the Planning Director."

Also included: "Trailers and recreational apparatus shall not be parked on a sideyard which abuts a street unless it is screened from public view in a manner approved by the Planning Director."

"Motor vehicles may be parked on an approved driveway (with a sideyard abutting a street), or other approved parking area."

In another section of the proposed ordinance, it is stated that trailers, camper units, boats and other recreational apparatus shall not be parked or stored within the required front yard setback except for a 24-hour loading period in any seven

In early times, illness was thought to be the work of demons or evil spirits. Now, germs have replaced demons and we say that a sick person "Caught" a germ. We take drugs to get rid of the "bug".

Actually, most of us carry the microbes of many diseases within us but our body's defenses keep the germs from taking control. Other influences such as extremes of temperature, lack of proper nourishment or even a psychological blow up... a family quarrel perhaps... can prevent defenses from functioning and we fall prey to one or another of the germs.

When your natural defenses aren't enough and your doctor prescribes medication, let us fill the prescription, promptly and precisely with "just what the doctor ordered".

T'Masters

The Yorba Linda-Placentia Toastmasters enjoyed another dinner meeting at the Alta Vista Country Club September 7. President Jerry Leff welcomed guest Paul Koo and four members of Fullerton Club #3060.

Table Topics Master Mike Lackner initiated a lively discussion about some little known words. Prepared speeches were delivered by after dinner speakers Al Maderas, Tony Schipsi, Martin Hundley and John Meursing.

General Evaluator Richard Wall pointed out that the club should study parliamentary rules more seriously. Best Evaluator's trophy was won by Lackner, Table Topics Award by Marv Grudem, and Best Speakers trophy by Meursing.

The next meeting of the club will be held again at the Alta Vista Country Club September 21. At that meeting speakers will be chosen to represent the club at the Humorous and Tall Tale Area Contest of October 2.

Thayer-Kilp

Patricia Mary Kilp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kilp of Yorba Linda, wed Gilbert M. Thayer, son of Mrs. Maria Thayer of Memphis Tennessee, Saturday, August 14 at St. Martin de Porres

Church in Yorba Linda. Rev. Vianney Thibedeau, uncle of the bride officiated at the double ring ceremony and the bride was given in marriage by both her parents. Organist was Dick Hanle.

MRS. GILBERT THAYER

The bride wore a gown of dacron polyester organza with victorian neckline trimmed with Venice lace appliques on the bodice and sleeves and a chapel train attached.

Her bouquet was of white masterpiece roses, daisies and stephanotis.

Her sisters Kathleen, maid of honor and Mary Lynn, bridesmaid, attended her wearing matching long nile green crepe gowns with capelets accented with white garden hats. They carried bouquets of yellow daisies.

Best man was Ed Hurley, uncle of the groom, of Memphis and James Thayer, brother of the groom was usher. Both are from Memphis. A garden reception was held at the home of the brides parents.

The brides mother wore a pale yellow crepe pleated chiffon dress with cape and a corsage of yellow roses.

The grooms mother's dress was apricot chiffon tunic floor length over crepe and her corsage was of yellow roses.

Special guests for the wedding included Mrs. Lucille Kilp, grandmother of the bride from Oshkosh, Wisconsin, the Rev. Vianney Thibedeau, uncle of the bride, from Mt. Calvary, Wisconsin.

Also attending was Mrs. Marie Thayer, James

Thayer and Ed Hurley, all of Memphis, and Mrs. Agnes Thibedeau, the brides grandmother of Yorba Linda, formerly of Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin.

The couple honeymooned in Lake Arrowhead and will make their home in Tustin.

The bride is a nurse at the Childrens Hospital of Orange County and her husband is a lab technician in the United States Navy.

What's New at The Nurse's Office?

BY DAPHNE ERIKSON

While the scholastic world sunned itself during the final few weeks of summer vacation, a gremlin with intent most benign, was busy at work in the nurse's office at Sierra Vista Elementary School.

To be more precise, Mrs. Mimi Alexander spent some fifty hours creating a mural which extends around all four walls of the formerly austere little room. The theme is rural and intentionally tranquil, designed to draw the viewer along winding paths and over grassy slopes, to splash bare feet in cool little streams.

Says Mrs. Alexander "I wanted to avoid the cartoon characters that typify themes used in schools accommodating only primary grade students.

Mrs. Alexander credited husband Wallace, a Cypress High School teacher with having prepared the walls to accept the art mediums, "and Sierra Vista's PTA obligingly funded the project."

Formerly from Oklahoma, the Alexanders have lived in Placentia for the past seven years with sons

John 14, Steven 13, and Ted, 8, a Sierra Vista third grader. Mrs. Alexander majored in art education and may be remembered for her artistic enterprises while employed as an instructional aide with the EMR program at Golden School.

Edison has over 80
conservation tips.
Here's #19.

CUT YOUR COOLING COST UP TO 40%.

Insulate your attic.

If your attic isn't properly insulated, you could be wasting money. Lots of money. Why? Because on hot days your attic is a storehouse of heat. This heat passes through your ceiling and into your rooms. Result: your air conditioning has to work longer and harder. And you end up paying the bill.

By insulating, or increasing the amount of insulation now in your attic, you may reduce your cooling costs as much as 40%—year after year. Your heating costs will also drop.

Based on today's prices, insulating an attic in a typical house runs between $200 and $300. And what better place to invest your money than in your own home?

Check with an insulation contractor or dealer today. Free conservation booklet. Conserving energy is still vital to our nation. Insulating your attic is one way to help. For many other ways to conserve energy, write for our free booklet, "Conservation," Edison, P.O. Box 800, Rosemead, CA 91770.

YL Meals/Milk

The Yorba Linda School District announced its policy for free and reduced-price meals and free milk for children unable to pay the full price of meals and milk served under the National School Lunch and Special Milk Programs.

Local school officials have adopted the following family size income criteria for determining eligibility:

Children from families whose income is at or below the levels shown are eligible for free meals and milk or reduced-price meals. In addition, families not meeting these criteria but with other unusual expenses due to unusually high medical expenses, shelter costs in excess of 30% of income, special education expenses due to the mental or physical condition of a child, and disaster or casualty losses are urged to apply.

Application forms are being sent to all homes in a letter to parents. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school. The information provided on the application is confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility. Applications may be submitted at any time during the year.

In certain cases foster children are also eligible for these benefits. If a family has foster children living with them and wishes to apply for such meals and milk for them, it should contact the school. Under the provisions of the policy, the Principal will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the official, he may wish to discuss the decision with the determining official on an informal basis.

If he wishes to make a formal appeal, he may make a request either orally or in writing to J. Elton Partridge, Deputy Superintendent, 5600 South Ohio, Yorba Linda, California, 92885, for a hearing to appeal the decision. The policy contains an outline of the hearing procedure.

If a family member becomes unemployed or if family size changes, the family should contact the school to file a new application. Such changes may make the children of the family eligible for reduced price meals or for additional benefits such as free meals and milk if the family income falls at or below the levels shown above.

In the operation of child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of race, sex, color, or national origin.

Each school and the office of the Yorba Linda School District has a copy of the complete policy which may be reviewed by an interested party.

SCHOOL DAYS--the one hundred teachers at El Dorado High School were feted recently with a welcoming brunch, starting the new school year. Around the table here are principal Jerry Jerberg; co-hospitality PTA chairwomen Bonnie Steele and June Palmer and special education teacher Lenore E. Le Febvre.

El Dorado Teachers Feted

September means school, right?

The Van Buren PTA thinks it does. Sept. 1 was the date of the first board meeting, at which time the schedule of events was presented for the year.

Wednesday, Sept. 8 the PTA board hosted a luncheon for the faculty, enabling the board and faculty to become acquainted.

Thursday, Sept. 9, the PTA sponsored teas for the three kindergarten classes' students and parents. Mrs. Karen Davidson, Ms. Marge Rayburn, and Mrs. Mary Hasson outlined the class schedules and program for the year.

Refreshments were served following the presentations by the teachers and by Stan Graham, principal. The first PTA meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, Sept. 21, at 7:30 p.m. in the multi-purpose room. This will be "Back To School" night, presenting an opportunity for parents to meet their child's teacher and tour the classrooms and facilities.

HONORED

Nancy Clement, 5092 Hamer Lane, Placentia, will be included in the 1976 edition of "Outstanding Young Women of America." Competing with 7,000 other outstanding young women, she will be eligible to be chosen as one of the Ten Outstanding Women of America at an awards luncheon this fall in Washington, D.C.

Van Buren PTA Busy

The El Dorado PTA board kicked off its school year activities with a brunch for the teachers and staff in the teachers lounge at El Dorado High School.

Coffee, danish and fruit were served to the approximately 100 staff members and teachers. Tables were decorated with rose bud vases. This social hour is an opportunity for board members, faculty and staff to renew and make acquaintances. June Palmer and Bonnie Steele were co-chairmen for the event.

The next activity of the PTA will be the September 30th, "back to school night". A general meeting for the PTA will be held at 7 p.m. At this time the annual service award will be presented. Classroom scheduling will begin at 7:30 p.m. This night marks the kickoff of the drive for PTA members.

Since this is the EDHS

Parent Teachers only fundraising activity, it is hoped that all those present will contribute the $1 membership, the group reports.

VAN BUREN SCHOOL PTA--Teacher Mary Hasson explains an early childhood communications program to PTA Hospitality chairwoman Greta Thomas, parent Chuck Frazer, kindergarten Stacey Frazer and parent Lorna Frazer.

Soroptimists Set Meeting

Yorba Linda-Placentia Soroptimists are planning a luncheon meeting for parents to be held Sept. 22 at 12:15 at Alta Vista Country Club, 777 Alta Vista, Placentia, at a cost of $3 per person.

Guest speaker for the meeting is Greg Bodenhamer, an authority on "brief family intervention" (regaining parental control of children) will speak on "How to Control Your Children, and When to Call for Help if You Can't."

Hornets Number 1

Coach Hal Sherbeck's Fullerton College Hornets have been named the number one grid squad in Southern California in the first Southland JC Football Poll of the year. Sherbeck is a Yorba Linda resident.

The poll is conducted weekly by Southern California community college sports information directors.

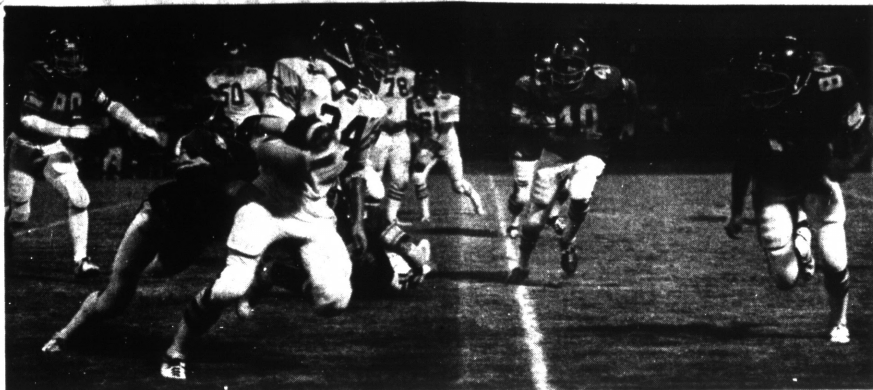

Sherbeck's Hornets, who have 14 starters back from last year's squad that went 7-2-0 and finished second in the South Coast Conference, were the unanimous first-place choice of the SID's. Fullerton received 70 points.

Citrus College, the defending Mission Conference co-champion, was second in the balloting with 51 points.

Orange Coast College, the defending national JC champ, was rated third despite having only three starters back from last year's 11-0-0 team. Rio Hondo, the team that lost to OCC in last year's Avocado Bowl, was placed in the fourth spot.

Golden West College was given the fifth position. The remainder of the top ten includes Bakersfield, Los Angeles Valley, El Camino, Saddleback and Santa Monica. Others who received votes were Long Beach, College of the Canyons, Santa Ana, Santa Barbara and Cypress.

FOOTBALL ACTION--Valencia's Rod Evans (#34) tries to shake off a tackle by Al Pagliarello in Valencia's annual Blue-Gold game Friday night. Also looking for action are Joe Yffert (#80), Paul Hoff (#50), Jim Wallace (#78) Bret Lindemuth (#61) Mino Rodriguez (#40), and Nick Garcia (#84). The scrimmage will be followed by regular games this weekend.

SCIENCE 101

Science for Preschoolers? Pretty heady stuff, right? Not really, because at Palo Alto Preschools our Science Course, like the rest of our curriculum, is like no other in the world.

Our Science Course deals with animals and nature and cooking. The natural order of things. We take field trips and nature trips, plant things and grow things. But the purpose behind it all is even more basic than that.

We want to help children open up their eyes to the magic of Discovery. We want them to touch, feel and see the beauty of nature. Of animals. Of all living things.

As a matter of fact, at Palo Alto Preschools, we look upon the whole world as a textbook. Just waiting to be read, discovered and enjoyed.

In the process, our children learn a great deal. And we have the statistics to prove how much more they learn and comprehend above the national average.

But most important of all — for them, for you and for us at Palo Alto Preschools — they have a lot of fun exploring and discovering new ways to learn.

PALO ALTO PRESCHOOLS: For children ages 2½ to 8. Full-day and half-day programs available. Hot lunches served. Ask about our new "Before and After School" Program.

(You'll find all of our Preschools located in churches because we believe in putting our money into education, not buildings. However, we are church located, not affiliated.)

$30. Introductory Offer:
One Free Week of Palo Alto Preschool — A $30 Value —

You can feel at home and identify with others in worship, in Bible Study groups, in various classes that deal with the everyday problems of life, in service for others. Find your place with us.

"Peggy's Pointers"

With the start of school, it's time for us to get back into a routine again, and begin to think about plans for the months ahead. Holidays are really not far off, and it's the right time to begin to think about plans for your home for holiday time.

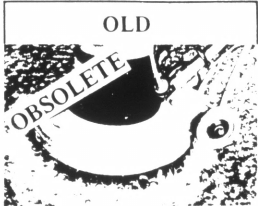

Are you planning on out-of-town visitors for one of the holidays? If so, do you have adequate facilities for them? I have frequently heard people tell me that they bought a sleep sofa hastily because they waited until the last minute and then had to take whatever was available, instead of selecting a fabric of their choice and having ample time to receive delivery. Most factories take six weeks to ship their merchandise to you, and that means it's time to start now.

In the next few columns, I'll share some ideas with you for space saving ways to make room for out-of-town visitors. The sleep sofa is one of the most practical answers to having an extra bed for guests, but sometimes, it's necessary to put up a couple of extra children, as well.

Ramp Required at Church

A condition by the city of Placentia that a wheel chair ramp be structured at the corner of Morse Avenue and Angelina Drive as part of new construction at the Episcopal Church of the Blessed Sacrament, was protested last week by architect Donald Burns Bauer.

Bauer told the Placentia city council that he was informed by the city's planning commission that the requirement was a state law. In a letter to the council, Bauer stated: "My subsequent researches indicate that such is not the case. The 'state requirement' includes only sidewalks constructed after November 13, 1968, by which time the church's sidewalk was well established in place."

The architect also protested on the basis that the current construction of a Sunday School building for the church was some distance from the sidewalk in question and that the city does not have a law requiring that ramps be constructed.

The church is also being asked to resurface its parking lot as a condition to the building construction.

Mayor George De Jesus concurred with Bauer, citing his construction experience where such wheel chair ramps had proven to be dangerous. He stated that he has reports on his desk from attorneys who are suing because a person in a wheel chair lost control on a ramp and ended up in the street in front of traffic.

Other councilmen, however, disagreed and Councilwoman Virginia Farmer told of her experiences of leading a blind relative up steps and up a ramp "and I prefer to lead that person up a ramp," she related.

YMCA Needs You!

The YMCA of North Orange County is preparing for its junior high school club program "kick-off" this fall and needs volunteer club advisors to assist in this greatly expanded program.

Boys and girls in the seventh and eighth grades throughout North Orange County will be organized according to their own special interests (backpacking, skiing, camping, friendship and social clubs).

The program in addition to the monthly YMCA sponsored trips and activities, will include a calendar of events planned by the individual club members and their advisor. Special Jr. Hi-Y Club T-shirts are being manufactured which will identify the program's participants in their community and throughout North Orange County.

High School seniors, college-age men and women, and especially adults, are encouraged to become involved in this worthwhile community program. A special mini-training course has been developed by the YMCA to provide new advisors with the necessary tools to become effective Jr. Hi-Y club leaders.

If you have an interest in today's youth and are willing to spend 10 to 20 hours a month with some kids who need your guidance and leadership, contact Jim Thomsen or Peggy Songster at 879-YMCA for more information.
